

Exclusive opportunity to make $100,000s on YT shorts

Are you looking to get paid 3X your YouTube Shorts RPM?

Have you been wondering how big creators are making so much profit from shorts?

→ It's actually because they're part of an exclusive sponsorship-style program that involves promoting music.

The best part? Even faceless creators, like texting niche, memes, movie recaps, literally ANY account can essentially make a Guaranteed minimum $10k/month, with some creators earning up to $50-60k/month.

The program is facilitated DIRECTLY from YouTube and has been taken advantage of by some of the biggest companies like epidemic sound and top creators like MrBeast to make millions from shorts.

The way it'll work for you is:

- Use music
- Get paid

This does not affect your channel, does not lead to copyright strikes or anything of that nature. Everything is contractually guaranteed by one of the largest creator management firms in the industry pulling 2-3B views monthly.

The best part? Whether you do this or not, all your money is already being siphoned by big music companies like epidemic sound, UMG, Warner media - there's nothing you can do about it.

If you want to start getting paid instead of these music execs, we partnered with a large creator management firm to get you this exclusive opportunity.

And no, we're not sponsored - I just want to spread the word.

They're currently working with a network doing over 3B views monthly and can show you some of the creators with over 10M+ subscribers they work with.

Currently, they have the best deal in the industry and they beat out any competition.

You can expect to get paid up to $5,000 for 10m views (up to 2-3x what YouTube currently pays)

And the only requirement is one of the following:

- That you average a minimum of 20-30m monthly views on YT shorts
- You're a big creator that's been inactive
 - ↳ As long as you can consistently get 300-500k+ views per vid or high monthly viewership.
